Advancing Women In Leadership

Volume 2, Number 2, Spring 1999

Preview

This issue examines the advances women have accomplished and the goals that lay ahead. Three articles discuss the strides women have made, and the final article addresses the additional barrier of American and International Overseas schools. The articles included are: "Paradigm Shift: A Perspective on Omani Women in Management in the Sultanate of Oman" (Salma M. Al-Lamki); "Barriers to Upward Mobility in International Schools for Women Administrators" (Barbara T. Berman); "Reflections of a Female School Executive" (Willa L. Gipson); "The School Superintendency: Male Bastion or Equal Opportunity" (Mimi Wolverton).

We hope you enjoy this issue of Advancing Women in Leadership in its entirety and that you look forward to subsequent issues soon to be published. Our intent is for this journal to serve women and girls around the world and to be viewed as a professional publication site for the scholarly inquiry and perceptives that advances women in leadership. Suggestions for improvement, encouragement, and submissions for upcoming issues are always welcome and appreciated.

Genevieve Brown, Ed.D. and Beverly J. Irby, Ed.D.
